

🕒 Group Visits

Group visits are a speciality at Moutere Downs. We cater for groups including international students, tour groups and corporate groups. A Moutere Downs horse experience is a very rewarding and enjoyable way to spend a morning or afternoon. During that time, you will learn a little about how the horse thinks and communicates, and have hands-on contact with these most powerful yet gentle creatures. The bond between man and the horse goes back thousands of years. Group members get an introduction to this special partnership, which for some may be a once-in-a-lifetime experience, and for others may be part of an ongoing journey of understanding. Below is an outline of our 3 most popular group experiences. We can also run customised programmes built for your specific requirements.
